

Highland Products Group

All products manufactured by Highland Products Group are warranted for one year from date of initial shipment. This warranty covers workmanship and materials. Merchandise found to be defective will be repaired or replaced at the company's sole discretion. The warranty specifically excludes freight damage.